Circular Note On

Historical Relationship between Indonesian Chamber of Commerce and Industry and the Indonesian National Arbitration Board (BANI)

1. The Indonesian National Board of Arbitration (BANI) as an arbitration institution was established by the Indonesian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (KADIN) Indonesia on November 30, 1977 on the basis of the Decree of KADIN Number: SKEP/152/DPH/1977 dated 30 November 1977 concerning the Indonesian National Board of Arbitration because of the actual need of business circle for the settlement of business disputes out of the court. Based on this consideration, Kadin Indonesia appointed Board of Executives of BANI for the first time in December 1977.
2. Furthermore, Kadin Indonesia appointed Board of Executives of BANI for the period of 1977-1982, Period 1983-1988, Period 1988-1993, Period 1993-1998, and Board of Executives of BANI Period 1998-2003. Thereafter the appointment of the Board of Executives of BANI was based on the Statute of BANI.
3. In accordance with Law No. 30 year 1999 concerning Arbitration and Alternative Dispute Settlement, BANI becomes an autonomous and independent institution that will settle both national and international trade and business disputes.
4. The historical relationship between KADIN Indonesia and BANI is also reflected in the signing of the Memorandum of Understanding on Arbitration and Alternative Dispute Resolution and the appointment of the Chairman of the Indonesian Chamber of Commerce and Industry as a BANI Counsel for the Period 2015-2020.
5. With the above background, Kadin informs businessmen who are going to obtain arbitration services can utilize BANI which is domiciled at Wahana Graha 1st, 2nd and 4th Floor, Jalan Mampang Prapatan No. 2, South Jakarta.

This circular note was disseminated to avoid any doubts about the establishment of BANI as a trusted arbitration body, both nationally and internationally.
